

NON-RESIDENTIAL CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP PROCEDURES

SELLER REQUIREMENTS:

1. Complete the Non-Residential Change of Ownership Form (page 3 of this packet) and submit to the Zoning Office with the required fee, which is based on the square footage of the unit/building.
2. Provide buyer with signed copies of all approved site plans. Verification, in the form of an original, signed letter stating that the buyer has received the site plans, is required to be submitted with the resale form.
3. All site improvements are expected to be in satisfactory condition and in conformance with the approved site plan. Improvements include, but are not limited to, paving, sidewalks, parking lot striping, ADA-compliant parking spaces, signage, lighting, landscaping, trash enclosures, and fencing.
4. A site inspection will be performed by the Zoning Officer to determine whether the site is in compliance with the approved site plan(s). If the site is not in compliance, the seller will be provided with a list of deficiencies that must be corrected before the Township is able to issue a Certificate of Conformance.
5. If the property is to transfer ownership prior to the outstanding deficiencies being corrected (as occasionally occurs with bank-owner properties), an escrow deposit (to be determined case-by-case, dependent on the extent of the deficiencies) will be required prior to the issuance of a Temporary Certificate of Conformance being issued. The escrow funds will be held by the Township until the deficiencies have been corrected, and the Township is able to issue a Certificate of Conformance.

BUYER REQUIREMENTS:

If the buyer/buyer's business, or any other occupant/tenant, intends to occupy the subject property, a Non-Residential Leasing packet must be submitted and approved prior to occupancy or the commencement of any tenant fit-out work. The proposed tenant (even if it is the buyer's own business/company) shall complete and submit the Non-Residential Leasing packet with all applicable forms. Please see the Non-Residential Leasing Procedures packet for more information.

If an existing permitted tenant is to remain in the property after the transfer of ownership, no additional permit is required. If an existing tenant has not been permitted (never obtained zoning approval for their occupancy/use of the property, the required Non-Residential Leasing packet must be submitted for all unpermitted businesses.

Note: Absolutely no signage shall be installed and/or altered (including change of copy) prior to the approval of a Sign Permit Application.

USE AND/OR ANY CONSTRUCTION WORK (TENANT FIT-OUT) MAY NOT COMMENCE PRIOR TO THE ISSUANCE OF ALL NECESSARY ZONING AND CONSTRUCTION PERMITS.
